IDEA TITLE

- We the members of CIVICSPLAY came up with the solution for making the Constitution easier for Indians in the form of a website.
- In the website we have provided summary of the parts of the constitution that makes it easier for user too understand it as the language of Constitution is very complex.
- We have games in our website playing which users can have the knowledge of the Constitution along with the fun.
- We are working on adding a feature for the students by which they can learn their textbook topics related to constitution in different manner.
- We are also working on adding a chatbot that can assist the user with their Constitution related queries.
- The uniqueness of our idea is the creative games and the assistance we are providing to the user.

Basic Flow of Website

Flowchart

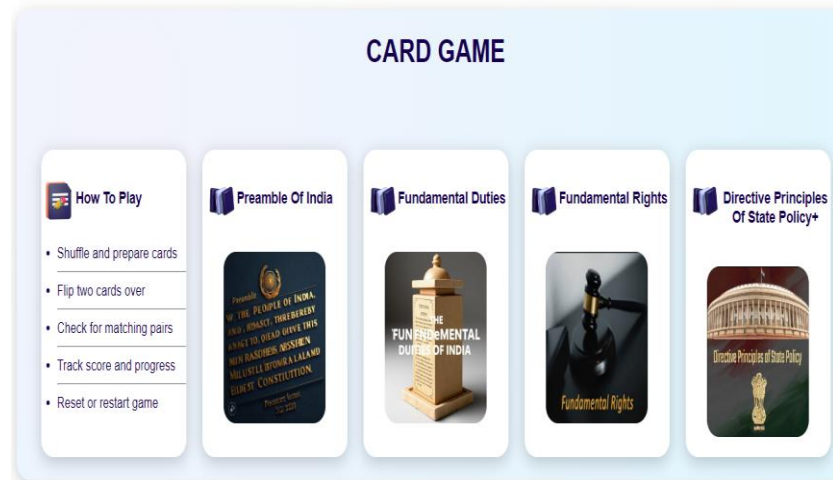

Feasibility

- There is growing interest among people to understand the constitution but it is very difficult to understand and thus a simplified extract of it is required and thus our website can be the solution for this problem.
- Our website is easy to navigate and the UI is attractive that makes our website unique from other government website and thus our idea is much feasible.

Risks and Challenges

- Risks in initiating such website as constitution is a legal document and there is chance that misinformation can be spread. Thus it is a challenge for us to provide correct information.
- Another risk can be over simplification that leads to loss of the important content. This challenges us to keep balance between simplification and accuracy.

Strategies

- The strategy to cope with the challenge of providing correct information is to have a dedicated person to gather constitutional data.
- To keep the balance between simplification and accuracy we need to understand the essence of the section we are simplifying this makes it easier to keep the balance.

Potential Impact on Target

- Target Audience of our website are students, educators, lawyers, legal consultant, general public, etc.
- Students preparing for Government Exams and School examination can be benefited with the short and simplified content.
- Educators can use the website as study material or reference material for the student.
- The junior lawyers can use the website as a quick guide for clarifying Legal provisions.
- Simplifying constitutional knowledge encourages the greater participation in democracy.

Benefits of Solution

- As the constitution becomes easily accessible and understandable, common people can know about rights and duties.
- People can have legal knowledge and can be protected from legal frauds.
- Students preparing for constitution related examination can use website as a tool.
- Over time, the website could serve as a comprehensive digital archive for constitutional amendments interpretations and landmark case laws.
